

Make Your Own Clutch from Duct Tape!

Written by Erin
kniterly.wordpress.com

You will need:

- A sheet of craft felt (approx 8 1/2 x 11 inches)
- Duct tape in as many colours and/or patterns as you'd like
- scissors
- peel-and-stick Velco®
- Things to decorate with (ribbon, sequins, etc)
- Glue gun (if ribbon and etc is not peel-and-stick)

Written by Erin

<http://kniterly.wordpress.com>

Step 1: Take a couple of different colours of duct tape and a felt sheet.

Written by kniterly.w

Written by Erin

<http://kniterly.wordpress.com>

Step 2: Cover one side of your felt with strips of duct tape so that a little bit hangs over each side. You can do it however you like, horizontal (shown) vertical, diagonal, etc.

Written by Erin
kniterly.wordpress.com

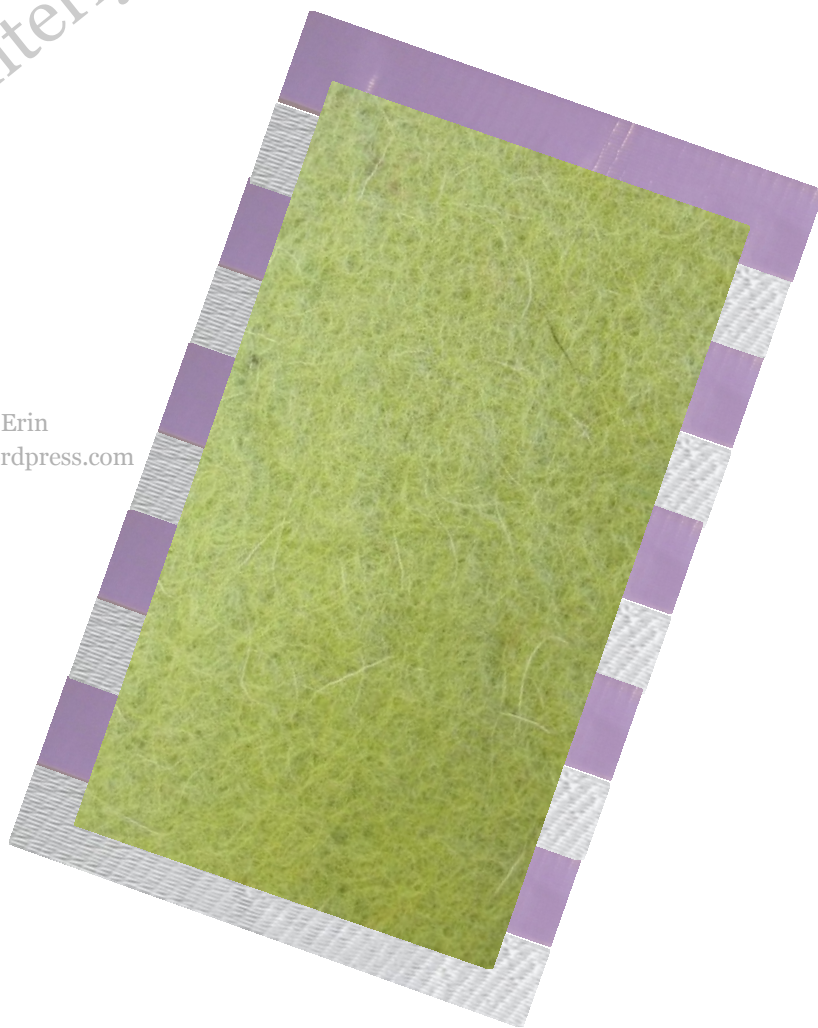

Written by Erin

<http://kniterly.wordpress.com>

Step 3: Flip your felt and tape creation over.

kniterly.wordpress.com

Written by Erin
kniterly.wordpress.com

Written by Erin
<http://kniterly.wordpress.com>

Step 4: Cut the overhanging tape off. Leave the top 1/3 and above.

kniterly.wordpress.com

1/3

Written by Erin
kniterly.wordpress.com

Written by Erin

<http://kniterly.wordpress.com>

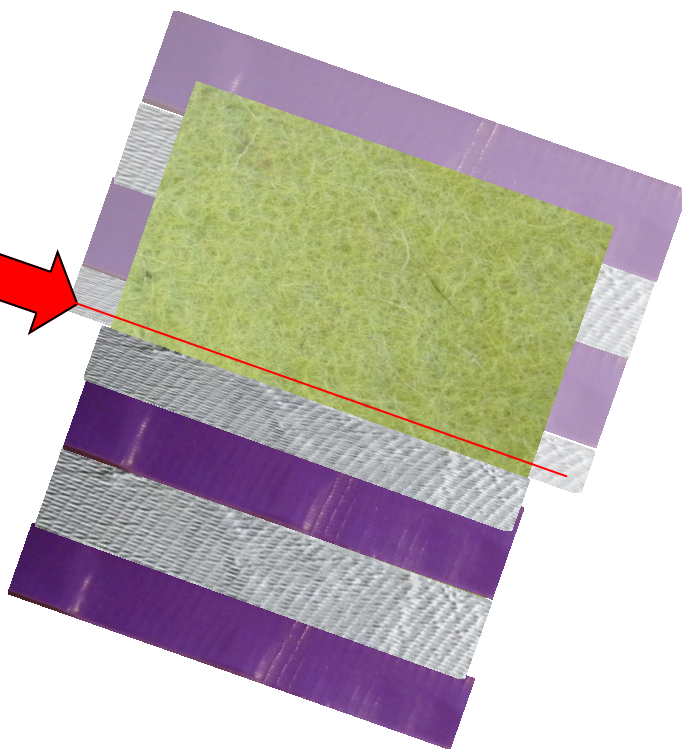

Step 5: Fold. To do this bring the bottom up to the $\frac{2}{3}$ line.

kniterly.wordpress.com

$\frac{1}{3}$

Written by Erin
kniterly.wordpress.com

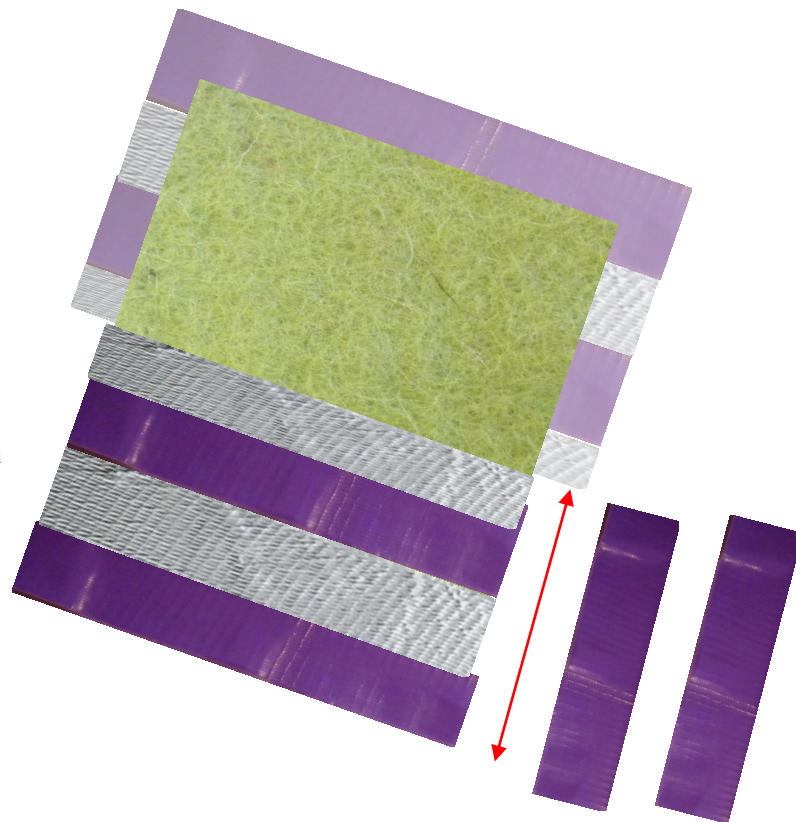

Written by Erin

<http://kniterly.wordpress.com>

Step 6: Cut two pieces of tape approximately the same length as the side of the pocket.

Written by Erin
kniterly.wordpress.com

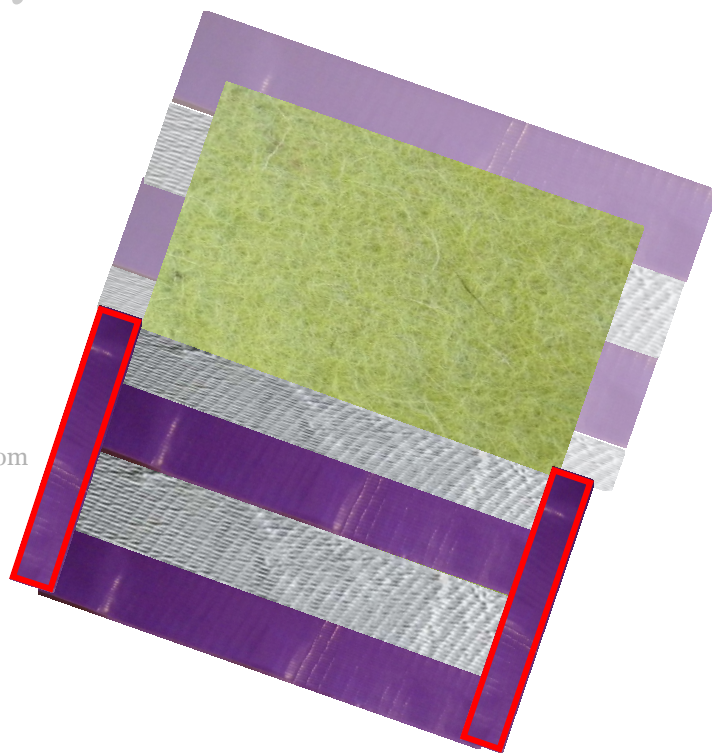

Written by Erin

<http://kniterly.wordpress.com>

Step 7: use one piece per side to tape the pocket closed. Press sticky sides together well to seal.

Written by Erin
kniterly.wordpress.com

Written by Erin

<http://kniterly.wordpress.com>

Step 8: cut away any excess tape (see dotted line).
Be careful not to cut the purse itself!

Written by Erin
kniterly.wordpress.com

Step 9: Place a strip of tape over each remaining felt edge. Press together well to other tape.

kniterly.wordpress.com

Written by Erin
kniterly.wordpress.com

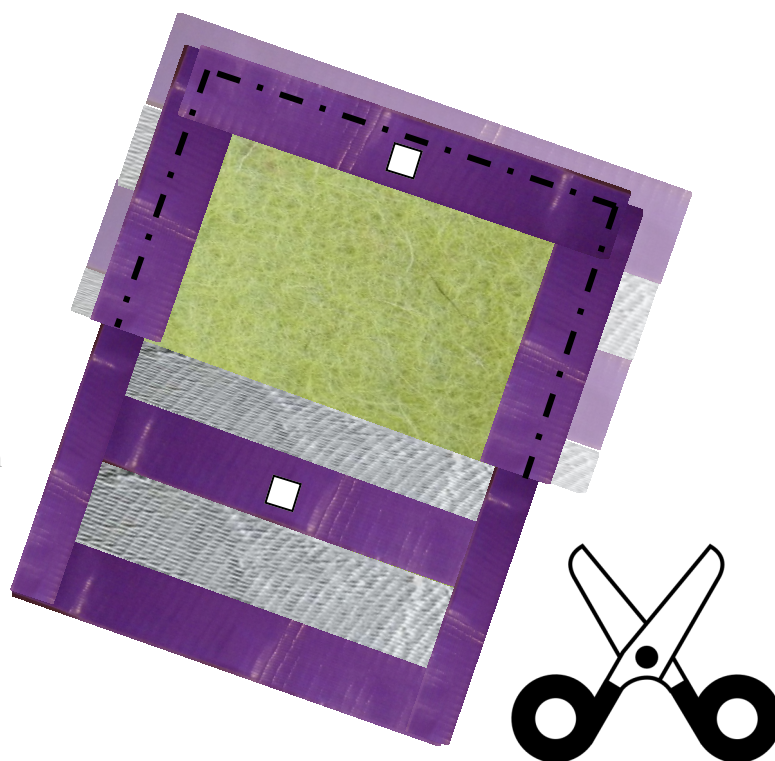

Written by Erin

<http://kniterly.wordpress.com>

Step 10: cut along the edge of the felt. Then place peel-and-stick Velcro® where you want the closure

kniterly.wordpress.com

Written by Erin
kniterly.wordpress.com

Written by Erin
<http://kniterly.wordpress.com>

Step 11: fold the top flap over the pocket.

You're done!

Written by Erin
kniterly.wordpress.com

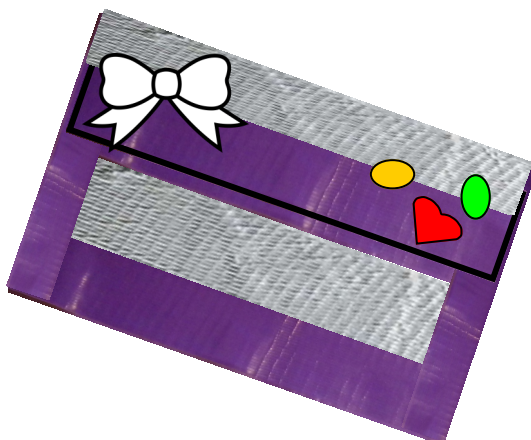

Written by Erin

<http://kniterly.wordpress.com>

Step 12: Decorate however you want!

kniterly.wordpress.com

Written by Erin
kniterly.wordpress.com

Written by Erin

<http://kniterly.wordpress.com>